Work starts to repair culvert carrying river beneath town

ROADWORKS are underway in Abingdon's Stert Street to reinforce a culvert carrying an underground river beneath the town.

Barriers were erected along the street in 2011 to prevent heavy vehicles from causing further damage to the structure below.

The work started on January 6 and are due to continue until March 2.

Abingdon Town Council leader Sandy Lovatt: "They'll have to resolve it or cars will be falling into the ditch."

Oxfordshire County Council is responsible for the work, which will see the underground arch reinforced. When the work is finished, the barriers should be removed.

The culvert is believed to date back to the 12th Century. The river flows through Boxhill Wood, beneath Stert Street before entering the Abbey Mill Stream next to Abingdon Bridge.

The tunnel has to be regularly cleared of debris to ensure water can flow down to the Thames so properties upstream are not flooded.

Cllr Lovatt added: "I think they're still examining it. They have to make sure it's safe to work down there."

Traffic lights to stay until roundabout work finishes

TEMPORARY traffic lights in Islip are to remain in place while a £10million improvement scheme to the Cutteslowe and Wolvercote roundabouts is carried out.

Oxfordshire County Council installed the lights either side of the bridge over the River Ray last month for a trial period due to concerns over pedestrian safety.

Council officers announced on Monday that the lights were to stay in place until this November following the trial period.

David Nimmo Smith, cabinet member for transport at the council, said: "The work that we are doing on the roundabouts has resulted in the amount of traffic travelling through Islip and over the bridge increasing by 20 per cent.

"After a number of visits from county council officers and representatives of Thames Valley Police, we have decided that the lights should remain in place with their performance under regular review until the work finishes."

The traffic lights will be removed when work at the roundabout is completed, according to the council.

Themes, ideas and inspiration for your wedding day

A SUMMER wedding offers some gorgeous wedding theme possibilities from elegant to feminine wedding day styles.

Before considering flowers, dresses, decoration, invitations, outfit, it is first of all vital to consider what you want your day to be: super stylish, cool and relaxed, rustic, urban, retro, vintage or romantic.

Celtic

With St Patrick's day in March, there are lots of ways to include an Irish theme.

Make a harvest knot to wear on your wedding day, or place one in your bouquet to symbolize your Irish heritage. Have a Ceilidh with traditional Irish dances.

Wear Irish Lace, and serve a traditional Irish Wedding Feast. Give Celtic-inspired gifts marked with the claddagh (two hands and a heart), Give love Tokens of Hair - they're symbolic of acceptance.

Cherry Blossoms

Cherry blossoms stand for virtue and new beginnings. Have a thick layer of flower petals carpeting the aisle For centrepieces, use compact flowers like hydrangeas or peonies with crystal-beaded willow for dramatic height, and scatter petals generously.

Hand your bridesmaids parasols, or fans. Coordinate all your gowns with beautiful, rich brocade sashes. To add a bit of glow, hang round paper lanterns from the ceiling.

Butterfly

A springtime bride might pair butterflies with blossoming branches and pastel petit fours, wear pretty silver and rhinestone jewellery sets. Have the groom wear a single fabric butterfly in his buttonhole.

Dress flower girls in wings and carry a white satin petal basket that's filled with butterfly petals instead of the usual rose petals.

39 BEAUTY

Brides (and bridal parties) are in expert hands at 39 Beauty in Witney's Corn Street. Full bridal packages (£130) can be tailored to each individual's requirements. Treatments that can be packaged up include Gelish manicures, waxing, your all-important eyebrow tint and shape, OPI pedicure, trial make-up and make-up for the big day (at your home or venue). Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Return visit for comic Josh

AFTER his successful gig in September, comedian Josh Widdicombe is making a return visit to the Oxford Playhouse the comedy show 'The Last Leg' with fellow on Thursday, January 21, and Friday, January 22.

The 32-year-old funnyman will revisit the Beaumont Street theatre as part of his 'What Do I Do Now?' tour, which will come to an end at the Nottingham Playhouse on his work with many comedy enthusiasts February 21.

Despite also being a presenter and actor, Josh revealed that his main passion is still for stand-up comedy - a business he first entered when he was 25.

"I love stand-up," he said. "I think of myself as a stand-up and it is not like a proper job, but it's what I do.

"Other things just happen to me, and they have all come out of my stand-up. It's good to remind myself why I ended up getting my own sitcom."

On his current tour, Josh said: "I really like the lifestyle, and I really like travelling really positive. around the UK.

"It's a very pleasant way to see the country. It's really interesting to see where people come from and then talk to them that moment. about those places."

mid-2008, Josh has become one of the most popular faces on the UK comedy circuit.

His appearances on many television shows such as 'Mock the Week', '8 out of 10 Cats Does Countdown' and co-presenting 7.30pm and tickets cost £17.50.

By James Richings

comedians Alex Brooker and Adam Hill whilst also having his own self-titled sitcom show, has really put the funnyman on the comedy map.

And despite the national acclaim of knowing his name, the comedian has always remained down-to-earth and humble when performing live or when doing interviews.

Comedy at The Northcourt Abingdon's new comedy venue

New Stand Up Comedy Club Opens with Music Venue in Abingdon

A new stand-up comedy club has opened in Abingdon and is bringing nationally known comedians to their monthly gigs. The next headline act is Ian Stone from 'Mock The Week' and 'Never Mind The Buzzcocks' on BBC2 and who also hosts BT Sport's 'The Football's On' and Absolute Radio's 'Rock & Roll Football'.

Operating under the name 'Comedy at The Northcourt' the next gig is on Friday January 22nd and sees Stone joined on the bill by fellow comedians James Redmond, John Lynn, Dorian Wainwright and Lucas Jolsen. The following months gig on Friday February 19th is to be headlined by the fabulous character of Sol Bernstein created by comedian Steve Jameson who takes on the persona of a New York Jewish empressario in much the same way as Sacha Baron Cohen does with his character Ali G and delivering punch line after punch line.

Comedy at The Northcourt is the brainchild of Bill Fletcher and Mark Cunningham of Abingdon United who together have also already successfully created Music at The Northcourt and have provided Abingdon with its first regular live music venue which is booking internationally and nationally renowned bands.

Cunningham said "I'd already worked with Bill to create a live music venue here at The Northcourt which was something the town has been lacking for a decade or more. So, when he came to me with the idea of introducing a comedy club here too I thought, why not! Out of Bounds had already been operating in Abingdon but their venue closed leaving them with the prospect of shutting down altogether. We immediately felt strongly that Abingdon losing yet another entertainment or facility was unacceptable to us to we pulled out all the stops to get this moving here at The Northcourt"

Full details of the comedy club and the music club's upcoming events can be found on their respective websites www.musicatthenorthcourt.weebly.com and www.northcourtcomedy.weebly.com

FEATURING songs covering a host By James Richings of different genres, The Continuum Covers Band will be bringing their repertoire to the General Foods Saturday, January 16.

Performing at the Spiceball Park Road pub for the first time this year, the three musicians of Danny Bash, Pete Clarke, and EJ Brooks arrive in north Oxfordshire with their versions of well-known hits from across the

And for Danny, there is one thing he particularly enjoys when performing to an appreciative audience.

"For us, it is getting people dancing as there is no bigger flattery than that," Danny told the Guardian.

"Also not being limited by noise restrictions, as that can really kill the vibe."

He added: "We are really looking forward to this show, as everyone can expect a really good mix of covers through the decades."

Music from the likes of Bruno Mars. The Beatles, Michael Jackson and Sports & Social Club in Banbury on many more will be tackled by the three part-time musicians from Newbury.

> "We are part-time but certainly play with a professional attitude towards what we do," Danny said.

> "And it is massive for youngsters to experience live music.

> "With music turning into a backing track pre-recorded sequenced experience lately, you can see the popularity of traditionally played music as a whole becoming more shallow.

> "People are a lot more forgiving now for live music that isn't actually live.

"And I know we never want to be a band playing along to our own tracks."

The gig starts at 9pm, and is free to attend.

Big sales on three models help put Renault on road to four-year-high performance

IT proved to be a successful 2015 for Renault UK as the French car manufacturer sold 75,618 vehicles in the UK - a four-year high.

Figures released by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders on January 7 saw the 14 per cent increase from 2014 help the company become one of the most financially successful businesses in the UK.

Sales of three Renault cars - the Clio hatchback, Captur crossover and the all-electric ZOE supermini rose by 5.8 per cent, helping the company to sell 53,410 vehicles from those models alone.

Electric vehicles also saw a further surge last year with 2,053

ZOE models being sold. This is a huge increase of 102 per cent compared to 2014.

of our family "This 2015 Renault's on UK market."

Kadjar, Renault's new familysized crossover, ignited the renewal of the brand's C-segment line-up with all-new generations of Mégane and Scénic to be launched at some point this year.

A combination of design, efficient and economical engines, strong residual value and competitive maintenance costs has seen the Kadjar contribute to Renault's growth since its UK launch, in the final quarter of 2015.

By James Richings

"This extraordinary growth has been fuelled by customer demand for our stunning new models, supported by our dealer network's commitment to customer satisfaction," Renault Group UK managing director Ken Ramirez said.

"The addition of Kadjar in the final quarter of 2015 has boosted the range even further and we look ahead to its first full year of sales in 2016, as well as the exciting launches of the Mégane in the summer and the Scénic later in the year, completing the renewal of our family car range.

"This 2015 performance reflects Renault's ongoing appeal in the UK market."

The Renault Group, which comprises Renault cars and vans and Dacia, significantly outpaced the UK vehicle market during 2015, with sales totaling 127,343 vehicles for a market share of 4.2 per cent – up 17.4 per cent from the year before.

This outpaced a total market growth of 7.4 per cent, making Renault Group the fastest growing volume franchise in the UK, outperforming the overall market for the third consecutive year.

Another final defeat for Deta

OXFORDSHIRE county darts player Deta Hedman suffered another heartbreaking ladies' world championship final defeat after losing 3-2 to Trina Gulliver on Saturday.

Hedman, who lives in Essex but plays for Oxfordshire, hadn't dropped a set on her way to a third BDO final at the Lakeside Country Club in Surrey.

The Jamaican-born 56-year-old won the opening set of the final with an impressive 118 checkout, before ex-Wantage thrower Gulliver levelled.

A close third set followed, with both players missing doubles to clinch it, before Hedman hit double 10 to put her one set away from a first title.

But nerves started to get the better of her, with shots going increasingly awry as Gulliver battled back to level once again.

And she whitewashed Hedman in the deciding set, landing double 18 to collect her 10th world title since 2001, and her first in five years.

The outcome brought back memories of Hedman's previous finals against Anastasia Dobromyslova in 2012 and Lisa Ashton in 2014, throwing for the championship on both occasions but ultimately being beaten.

HOCKEY: Beth Williamson grabbed the late winner for Oxford Hockey Club's ladies' 2nds in a 2-1 win over Sonning's 1sts on Saturday.

All eyes on the Hellenic prem

THE Hellenic Premier League is potentially the most exciting title race that you'll see in England's nonleague structure this season with five teams vying for the championship.

Kidlington are nestled with Thatcham Town, Flackwell Health, Ascot United and Highworth Town in a race to get into the Southern League with only eight points separating the top five.

Thatcham currently lead the division a point ahead of Flackwell, with Kidlington just two points behind them, and Ascot only trailing by a point.

Flackwell, last season's champions, are the favourites for the title.

The league leaders have won 21 of their 30 games in all competitions so far this season, although Thatcham pose a threat with top goalscorer Josh Helmore, who has netted 15 for the Kingfishers, whilst Kidlington have only lost once in their last 13 games in all competitions.
